GOVERNOR, KU KLUX, LEGISLATURE AT OUTS

WALTON STILL HAS THE WHIP HAND IN OKLAHOMA QUARREL

65 MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE WANT IMPEACHMENT SESSION CALLED

OPPOSE EXECUTIVE'S USE OF MILITARY IN HIS FIGHT AGAINST KU KLUX

(By United Press)
Oklahoma City, Sept. 19.—A call for a meeting of the legislature on Saturday to consider a motion for impeachment of Governor Jack Walton was prepared today by members who oppose the executive's use of the military in his fight against the Ku Klux Klan.

At a conference of leaders of the opposition to the administration's statewide martial law program preparations were made to meet in spite of the governor's threat that he would jail all members who attempted to assemble.

Sixty-five members of the legislature were reported to have agreed to sign the call for the impeachment session.

Whether they will attempt to meet in the capitol, guarded by heavily armed state troops, was doubtful. Some discussion was heard of meeting in another city.

The decision to call the legislature into session was reached following a statement by Summers Hardy, former chief justice of the Oklahoma supreme court, advising the lawmakers that they were entitled to meet and to defy the governor's threat by gathering in face of the display of military force.

The governor and his supporters apparently were not greatly disturbed about the legislature, and went on with their military program on an ever broader scale.

The inquisitors expressed themselves as well satisfied over the evidence obtained, although no hint of the testimony was made public.

Governor Walton was highly elated today over the action of the convention of the State Federation of Labor at Henrietta in endorsing his course.

Due to the impeachment threat of the legislature, soldiers kept close watch on the capitol and public buildings.

Throughout the night while a terrific rain and wind storm was in progress the shadowy forms of guardsmen were outlined pacing in front of the capitol.

STRIVE TO FIND KU KLUX RECORDS

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 19.—Military officials enforcing martial law in Oklahoma today directed strenuous efforts toward locating records of the Ku Klux Klan removed from their headquarters offices here Saturday night just before Governor J. C. Walton proclaimed military rule over the entire state.

State investigators and military intelligence officers scoured the state for the membership rolls and other documents of the Klan.

The governor issued instructions today to his aides to "go the limit" in regaining the Klan files. The executive was greatly disturbed when he heard the invisible empire had balked one of the main objects of his martial law declaration in Oklahoma City by removing all records.

Reservation Lands Opened

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 19.—Nine thousand acres in the Leach Lake, Deer Creek, Pigeon River, Bois Fort, Red Lake, and White Earth reservation districts is opened today to veterans of the world war. Veterans are favored until Dec. 19, after which all who are qualified to hold government land may file.

Preference is also given to veterans in land opened up in Colorado and Utah.

Boy Scout Council Hears Fine Camp Report Made

ENGLISH DO NOT LIKE IDEA OF A 12 MILE LIMIT ON SEABOARD

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 19.—Great Britain has delivered to the United States a negative reply to the American proposal for a treaty extending the 12-mile limit to combat the illicit liquor traffic, it was officially announced at the state department today.

The British note was handed to Acting Secretary of State Phillips by Charge d'Affaires Chilton of the British embassy.

The note is understood to be principally a recapitulation of the British government's objections to the American proposal.

The note sets forth at length the reasons why the British government believes that the American proposal would not be practicable. However, high state department officials said they would not regard the British note as complete rejection of the American proposal.

TANGLED CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY

MAN SUPPOSED DEAD AND BURIED, INSURANCE COLLECTED, COMES HOME

(By United Press)
Montella, Wis., Sept. 19.—After beneficiaries had collected his life insurance and his mangled body had been interred in a local cemetery, Tim Collins, 65, believed to have been killed by a train near Fort Snelling, Minn., came back to life.

He arrived here last night, much to the surprise of everyone and his return leaves police officials, relatives and officers of the Knights of Columbus facing the queerest case on record in central Wisconsin.

Some weeks ago a mangled body bearing Collins' watch and with Collins' suitcase nearby was found on the railroad tracks near Fort Snelling. Arrangements were made to have the body brought here for burial, where identification was made by scores of friends and relatives. After the body had been buried life insurance of $2,000 carried in the Knights of Columbus was paid.

In explaining the case Collins said his suitcase had been stolen from him in Minneapolis and evidently the man who had stolen it was killed and it was his body they had found.

SELVIG INJURED IN BATTLE WITH DEER

SCHOOL HEAD BATTERED AND CUT GRAPPLING WITH BUCK

Crookston, Minn., Sept. 19.—C. G. Selvig, president of the Northwest School of Agriculture here and widely known throughout the state as an agricultural expert, and two other men employees at the school were hurt when a buck deer at the school went on a rampage.

The deer first attacked Casper Field, school janitor, and was attempting to gore and trample him when Selvig went to the rescue.

Field already had suffered a broken ankle and was bleeding from many wounds when Selvig grappled with the buck, which turned its attention to the school president. Selvig was severely battered and cut when Kenneth Monson, school dairyman, arrived and the three men were able to force the deer into a fallen tree, where Monson attempted to hold him while the other two men escaped. Monson was unable to hold the deer alone, and was obliged to climb a tree until more help arrived.

TAKES UP PROBLEM OF WESTERN WHEAT GROWERS OF NATION

SENATOR BORAH OF IDAHO DISCUSSING SAME WITH COOLIDGE

BORAH HAS COMPLETED A FARM SURVEY OF SEVERAL MONTHS

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 19.—Senator Borah, Idaho, will take up with President Coolidge today the problem of western wheat farmers as it is seen by the bloc in congress.

Borah, who has just completed a farm survey of several months, declined today to state what remedy he would suggest, but promised a statement of his views of the farm situation following the conference.

Just what plans he has in mind to relieve the distress of wheat farmers has not been disclosed but his advisors say it is certain he will not call Congress in extra session to escape from the nostrums that have been suggested.

The only specific recommendations to be made by Secretary Wallace in a report outlining possible relief measures to be submitted to the president, it was learned today, are:

1. Curtailment of wheat production, which will not be effective until next year.

2. A study of American agricultural imports by the Department of Commerce to determine new or larger crops of commodities in the United States so that the problem of diversification of crops may be solved.

Mr. Coolidge has repeatedly, since he assumed office, sat down on proposals on an extra session, and it was said he would not heed the pleas to be made next week by the committee of bankers from the Northwest who will urge him to call Congress to revive the United States Grain corporation to handle the wheat crop.

Being bankers and sound business men, it was said, the gathering from the Northwest would not advocate any power to fix guaranteed prices of wheat such as the war period witnessed, but they are extremely anxious to have the Grain corporation revived, and this would require an act of Congress to accomplish the revival.

The committee will be personally conducted by Representative Young of North Dakota, a big factor in the farm bloc, which will go out September 25, and composed of state bankers of the Ninth Federal Reserve district:

A. R. Stephens, Crookston, Minn.; M. J. Holmberg, St. Paul; Frank Clague, Redwood Falls, Minn.; Andrew Kopperud, Webster, S. D.; G. H. Harred, Aberdeen, S. D.; G. M. Garnett, St. Thomas, N. D.; James Buchanan, Buchanan, N. D.; James Sanford, Valley City, N. D.; A. B. Donault, Jamestown, N. D.; A. L. Stone, Dillon, Mont., and W. F. Jordan, Glendive, Mont.

PROPOSES RATE READJUSTMENT TO CURE FARMERS' ILLS

Readjustment of railroad rates and consolidation of railroads were advanced today by Secretary of Commerce Hoover as essential to a cure for the farmers' troubles.

Discussing administration efforts to find a remedy for distress in agriculture, particularly in wheat, Hoover asserted that one of the fundamental needs of today is a "readjustment of the entire rate structure." That, he said, is the underlying problem, in the belief of railroad experts.

Commodity rates are too high in comparison with those on manufactured goods and classified articles, Hoover said. He added that though reductions might make it difficult

NEW YORK HAS HARD TIME GETTING NEWS, PAPERS STOPPED

(By United Press)
New York, Sept. 19.—New York's news hungry millions found scant respite today from the newspaper famine caused by the strike of New York pressmen.

Early birds found a few copies of the city's foreign language papers on sale, but these even disappeared like dew before the rising tide of humanity that descended on harassed newsdealers in search of news.

"The combined New York morning newspapers" were sold out almost before the newsboys could cut open the packages.

The strike situation, brought about by the dissatisfaction with present wages and working conditions, was practically unchanged this morning.

The local union which ordered the strike made no move to send the men back to work.

"BEER WAR" RAGES IN THE WINDY CITY

RIVAL BOOTLEGGING SYNDICATES ARE AT LOGGER-HEADS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Sept. 19.—Highly placed Chicago politicians were under surveillance today in connection with the deadly "beer war" between two rival bootlegging syndicates which so far has taken a toll of six lives.

The two factions are locked in a struggle, one faction seeking to block Mayor Dever's investigation of the beer war—the other seeking prosecutions.

A drastic police shakeup also appears in prospect.

Under Dever's orders practically all of the city's policemen and detectives are engaged in a hunt for the slayers of "Georgia" Meeghan and "Spot" Monday, and at the same time keeping alert for another outbreak between the rival factions.

Studies to Keep Aas

From Playing Football

Minneapolis, Sept. 19.—Ollie Aas, whose absence from the University of Minnesota football squad has been the source of considerable worry to Coach Bill Spaulding, reached the campus today and informed the Gopher mentor that he would be unable to participate in football this year because of a heavy scholastic program and outside duties.

for some roads in agricultural sections to operate profitably, the plan might be worked out by consolidating on the plan worked out by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and which Congress will be asked to pass upon.

AIM OF FARM BLOC IN THE NEXT CONGRESS

Algona, Ia., Sept. 19.—The farm bloc in the next Congress will concentrate its efforts on securing enactment of a few important legislative measures instead of waging its fight on a variety of proposals, it was revealed today by Congressman L. J. Dickinson, one of the farm bloc leaders, on the eve of his departure for Washington.

Dickinson outlined the main program of the farm bloc as follows:

Establishment of additional government warehousing facilities for the farmers.

Amendment or modification of the Each-Cummins law.

Improvement of inland waterways, principally the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, so as to encourage river barges.

Advocacy of "truth in fabric" legislation to protect the wool grower.

GERMANY PROPOSES TO DROP HER PASSIVE RESISTANCE STAND

REPARATIONS OFFER IS MADE THROUGH THE BELGIAN AMBASSADOR

MAY PAY OVER MAXIMUM OF 30,000,000,000 GOLD MARKS

(By United Press)

Berlin, Sept. 19.—By telephone to Paris, Germany today proposed through the Belgian ambassador to drop passive resistance in the Ruhr, under the sole condition that the inhabitants of the occupied areas who have been expelled shall be returned and those arrested released.

She also proposed to consider paying reparations of more than 300,000,000,000 gold marks, her previous maximum offer.

TERMS OF THE CAPITULATION

Berlin, Sept. 19.—Germany capitulated.

After an important cabinet session today at which three propositions faced the government—stick it out, giving in gradually, and capitulating—although it was not called by that name—the Stresemann ministers offered through the Belgian ambassador to cease passive resistance in the Ruhr. Minor clauses were attached by the government, namely that inhabitants of the Ruhr and Rhineland arrested or deported should be returned to their homes.

It was submitted to the Belgian ambassador to go to the reparations commission, although it may only be accepted by the commission with Germany's consent.

A most important part of the capitulation was an offer to consider payment of reparations above 30,000,000,000 gold marks, German's previous maximum.

When the cabinet met today the ministers considered three possible steps to be taken: 1. To turn on the money presses, sending out a flood of worthless paper and in this way meet the expenses of resistance in the Ruhr.

2. To gradually decrease passive resistance, while at the same time keeping up diplomatic resistance.

3. To quit.

The ministers decided to quit.

CALIFORNIA FIRES BELIEVED UNDER CONTROL TODAY

(By United Press)

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Hundreds of miles of smoking timber land or smoldering brush guarded by thousands of fire fighters marked the scenes of the worst forest fires in California history, which were believed under control early today.

Any renewed wind may start a dozen conflagrations, however, particularly in the northern part of the state where forest fires were severe.

A dozen small towns in the north, many summer resorts, scores of ranches and miles of forest were wiped out by the flames.

At Berkeley, which suffered a loss of $10,000,000 through the destruction of part of the finest residential section when brush fires in the vicinity spread, fires are out. No loss of life has been reported. The fire was the worst since 1906.

Berkeley was placed under martial law late last night and city officials have started an investigation of low water pressure which left the city helpless for five hours Monday while the fire swept across fifty blocks of the finest residential section.

JAPANESE RELIEF FUND TO GAIN AID DURING THE WEEK

The Japanese relief fund, as started by the Brainerd Red Cross Chapter, on Tuesday evening, totaled $105, that amount being acknowledged in the Brainerd Dispatch, which is publishing the contributions as received.

This morning the Brainerd Hardware company donated $10, making the total $115.

The Red Cross Chapter urges all to contribute who wish to alleviate suffering in Japan. Recently a typhoon added its horrors to those of earthquake and fire, taking a further toll of 5,000 lives. Pictures recently published show the fire stricken area in Japan, smashed shipping, torn up cement roads. Towns have been so leveled that not even a dog can return for refuge.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL SHOTS SELF ACCIDENTALLY

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Sept. 19.—Lucille Kreiser, pretty 18-year-old West High school girl, fired a bullet into her breast near the heart, which Tuesday night caused her death. Her parents said it was an accident.

The story of the shooting was withheld until the girl died. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Kreiser, told Coroner Seashore of having come upon her unconscious form in the bathroom of their home Sunday. At her side was a revolver kept in the house.

Upon reviving, the parents said, the girl told of accidentally discharging the weapon while toying with it. The coroner returned a verdict of accidental death.

Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo Troubles

(By United Press)

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 19.—A petition for another Cass county grand jury to investigate the defunct Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo will be presented to Jhdge Cooley in Grand Forks soon, it was announced today. Attorney General George Shaffer and H. F. Horner, state's attorney of Cass county, signed the petition.

A grand jury in 1922 returned over 30 indictments against 12 defendants, including men high in political and banking circles of the state during the Nonpartisan regime. Among them were A. C. Townley, president of the league, and William Lembke, vice president.

The indictments were dismissed as faulty by Judge George McKenna of Napoleon, and a petition to reinstate them was denied by the supreme court. The petition for a new grand jury investigation alleges virtually the same irregularities as the original charges.

CLYDE E. PARKER THANKED FOR HIS LEASE OF SITE

CAMP COMPLIED WITH ALL REGULATIONS OF NATIONAL CAMPING COMMITTEE

COUNCIL ACCEPTS PROFFER OF TAKING CHARGE OF NEW CITIZENSHIP PROGRAM

(By United Press)

At the meeting of the Boy Scout Council, held in the court house in the new offices of Scout Executive E. W. Stimble, the most important report was that made by the camp committee through its chairman, A. A. Gieriet.

The camp was held July 2 to 31 and complied with all the regulations imposed by the national camping committee. The camp comprises 61 acres, and is located two miles west of Merrifield on ground owned by Clyde E. Parker, who gave the use of the site without charge. He also gave permission to cut any timber required. The council gave Mr. Parker a hearty vote of thanks for his generosity and also accepted his offer to hold the camp there in 1924.

The swimming grounds will be improved, equipment added to take care of the increased number of boys expected at the camp.

Mr. Gieriet reported on camp equipment, tents, bedding, the arrangements made for preparing and serving meals, etc. The personal cleanliness of the boys was constantly under supervision. He praised the work of Scout Executive E. W. Stimble, his assistant Robert Duerr, and others. A record of all expenditures is being compiled. The menu as first proposed was not followed to the letter, the boys being given added delicacies. The camp did much to sell the Scout movement to Crow Wing county. The present equipment is adequate for 32 boys. The season can be lengthened to eight weeks with about 50 boys for each two weeks' period.

President Carl Zapffe presided at the council meeting, told of Scout work and that new troops were contemplated at Hubert, Pequot, Pine River, Crosby, Ironton and Deerwood and that Brainerd's four troops would be brought up to standard.

Chairman Gieriet of the camp committee called attention to hiking parties planned and asked that the boys be given all needed co-operation. The first hike will be held Sept. 29 to Borden lake.

President Carl Zapffe, who presided at the Scout council, appointed a budget committee consisting of W. A. M. Johnstone, Dr. C. G. Nordin, John A. Hoffbauer, A. A. Gieriet and A. G. Trommald.

A committee on business procedure, to outline functions of commissioned officers and committees so that they would not overlap, was named by President Zapffe and included W. A. Erickson, S. R. Adair, E. J. Quinn, Robert Duerr.

Mr. Johnstone, as clerk of the district court, asked the Boy Scout Council to take charge of the new citizenship program at the court house at the November term of court, and on motion, it was accepted. President Zapffe appointed George E. Lowe, Walter F. Wieland, W. A. M. Johnstone, A. A. Gieriet and E. W. Stimble.

GERMANY PROPOSES TO DROP HER PASSIVE RESISTANCE STAND

REPARATIONS OFFER IS MADE THROUGH THE BELGIAN AMBASSADOR

MAY PAY OVER MAXIMUM OF 30,000,000,000 GOLD MARKS

(By United Press)
Berlin, Sept. 19.—By telephone to Paris.—Germany today proposed through the Belgian ambassador to drop passive resistance in the Ruhr, under the sole condition that the inhabitants of the occupied areas who have been expelled shall be returned and those arrested released.

She also proposed to consider paying reparations of more than 300,000,000,000 gold marks, her previous maximum offer.

TERMS OF THE CAPITULATION

Berlin, Sept. 19.—Germany capitulated.

After an important cabinet session today at which three propositions faced the government—stick it out, giving in gradually, and capitulating—although it was not called by that name—the Stresemann ministers offered through the Belgian ambassador to cease passive resistance in the Ruhr. Minor clauses were attached by the government, namely that inhabitants of the Ruhr and Rhineland arrested or deported should be returned to their homes.

It was submitted to the Belgian ambassador to go to the reparations commission, although it may only be accepted by the commission with Germany's consent.

A most important part of the capitulation was an offer to consider payment of reparations above 30,000,000,000 gold marks, German's previous maximum.

When the cabinet met today the ministers considered three possible steps to be taken: 1. To turn on the money presses, sending out a flood of worthless paper and in this way meet the expenses of resistance in the Ruhr.

2. To gradually decrease passive resistance, while at the same time keeping up diplomatic resistance.

3. To quit.

The ministers decided to quit.

CALIFORNIA FIRES BELIEVED UNDER CONTROL TODAY

(By United Press)

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Hundreds of miles of smoking timber land or smoldering brush guarded by thousands of fire fighters marked the scenes of the worst forest fires in California history, which were believed under control early today.

Any renewed wind may start a dozen conflagrations, however, particularly in the northern part of the state where forest fires were severe.

A dozen small towns in the north, many summer resorts, scores of ranches and miles of forest were wiped out by the flames.

At Berkeley, which suffered a loss of $10,000,000 through the destruction of part of the finest residential section when brush fires in the vicinity spread, fires are out. No loss of life has been reported. The fire was the worst since 1906.

Berkeley was placed under martial law late last night and city officials have started an investigation of low water pressure which left the city helpless for five hours Monday while the fire swept across fifty blocks of the finest residential section.

JAPANESE RELIEF FUND TO GAIN AID DURING THE WEEK

The Japanese relief fund, as started by the Brainerd Red Cross Chapter, on Tuesday evening, totaled $105, that amount being acknowledged in the Brainerd Dispatch, which is publishing the contributions as received.

This morning the Brainerd Hardware company donated $10, making the total $115.

The Red Cross Chapter urges all to contribute who wish to alleviate suffering in Japan. Recently a typhoon added its horrors to those of earthquake and fire, taking a further toll of 5,000 lives. Pictures recently published show the fire stricken area in Japan, smashed shipping, torn up cement roads. Towns have been so leveled that not even a dog can return for refuge.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL SHOOTS SELF ACCIDENTALLY

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Sept. 19.—Lucille Kreiser, pretty 18-year-old West High school girl, fired a bullet into her breast near the heart, which Tuesday night caused her death. Her parents said it was an accident.

The story of the shooting was withheld until the girl died. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Kreiser, told Coroner Seashore of having come upon her unconscious form in the bathroom of their home Sunday. At her side was a revolver kept in the house.

Upon reviving, the parents said, the girl told of accidentally discharging the weapon while toying with it. The coroner returned a verdict of accidental death.

Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo Troubles

(By United Press)
Fargo, N. D., Sept. 19.—A petition for another Cass county grand jury to investigate the defunct Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo will be presented to Judge Cooley in Grand Forks soon, it was announced today. Attorney General George Shaffer and H. F. Horner, state's attorney of Cass county, signed the petition.

A grand jury in 1922 returned over 30 indictments against 12 defendants, including men high in political and banking circles of the state during the Nonpartisan regime. Among them were A. C. Townley, president of the league, and William Lembke, vice president.

The indictments were dismissed as faulty by Judge George McKenna of Napoleon, and a petition to reinstate them was denied by the supreme court. The petition for a new grand jury investigation alleges virtually the same irregularities as the original charges.

CLYDE E. PARKER THANKED FOR HIS LEASE OF SITE

CAMP COMPLIED WITH ALL REGULATIONS OF NATIONAL CAMPSHIP PROGRAM

COUNCIL ACCEPTS PROFFER OF TAKING CHARGE OF NEW CITIZENSHIP PROGRAM

(By United Press)
At the meeting of the Boy Scout Council, held in the court house in the new offices of Scout Executive E. W. Stimble, the most important report was that made by the camp committee through its chairman, A. A. Gieriet.

The camp was held July 2 to 31 and complied with all the regulations imposed by the national camping committee. The camp comprises 61 acres, and is located two miles west of Merrifield on ground owned by Clyde E. Parker, who gave the use of the site without charge. He also gave permission to cut any timber required. The council gave Mr. Parker a hearty vote of thanks for his generosity and also accepted his offer to hold the camp there in 1924.

The swimming grounds will be improved, equipment added to take care of the increased number of boys expected at the camp.

Mr. Gieriet reported on camp equipment, tents, bedding, the arrangements made for preparing and serving meals, etc. The personal cleanliness of the boys was constantly under supervision. He praised the work of Scout Executive E. W. Stimble, his assistant Robert Duerr, and others. A record of all expenditures is being compiled. The menu as first proposed was not followed to the letter, the boys being given added delicacies. The camp did much to sell the Scout movement to Crow Wing county. The present equipment is adequate for 32 boys. The season can be lengthened to eight weeks with about 50 boys for each two weeks' period.

President Carl Zapffe presided at the council meeting, told of Scout work and that new troops were contemplated at Hubert, Pequot, Pine River, Crosby, Ironton and Deerwood and that Brainerd's four troops would be brought up to standard.

Chairman Gieriet of the camp committee called attention to hiking parties planned and asked that the boys be given all needed co-operation. The first hike will be held Sept. 29 to Borden lake.

President Carl Zapffe, who presided at the Scout council, appointed a budget committee consisting of W. A. M. Johnstone, Dr. C. G. Nordin, John A. Hoffbauer, A. A. Gieriet and A. G. Trommald.

A committee on business procedure, to outline functions of commissioned officers and committees so that they would not overlap, was named by President Zapffe and included W. A. Erickson, S. R. Adair, E. J. Quinn, Robert Duerr.

Mr. Johnstone, as clerk of the district court, asked the Boy Scout Council to take charge of the new citizenship program at the court house at the November term of court, and on motion, it was accepted. President Zapffe appointed George E. Lowe, Walter F. Wieland, W. A. M. Johnstone, A. A. Gieriet and E. W. Stimble.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY STUDIES JAPANESE

Interesting Meeting Held by 1st Congregational Church Society

AT HOME OF MRS. E. P. SLIPP

Review of the Various Papers Read by Participating Members

The missionary society of the First Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. E. P. Slipp on Friday afternoon, and the study of "Assets and Liabilities of the Japanese," Chapter 1, "Creative Forces in Japan" was taken up and the following program carried out:

"Map study of Japan," Mrs. Slipp. The qualities the Japanese people most admire and themselves exemplify are shown in "The roll of Japan's heroes." The heroes of any people being, perhaps, the surest index of their character. Of these non-Christian heroes, Miss Robinson told why some were worshipped, viz benevolence, enlightened statesman, founder of Buddhist sects, inventor of Japanese running script, honesty, saintly teacher, homely wisdom, peasant saint, etc.

Among the several Christians who have won chief place in the roll of Japanese heroes, is Joseph Hardy Neesima, told by Mrs. Losey, and which revealed the run-away patriot leaving Japan and coming to America in search of the true God, and at a time when to leave Japan was to invite the death penalty.

Today, in the city of Kyoto, on the edge of the imperial park, a traveler would stop to admire the beautiful buildings and grounds of a great university. It is Neesima's work, the Doshisha. Among the many young men and women enrolled as students there are thousands of graduates who have gone forth from its walls to help Japan and to lead her to know the great Master. They owe their chance to Joseph Hardy Neesima, who ran away from home to get an education and who sold his sword for a new testament.

Mrs. H. L. Jones spoke on the "Mental Capacity of the Japanese in Scientific Research," showing that in the field of scientific research, not a few Japanese have attained eminence. The best known instances being Dr. Kitasato and Dr. Noguchi, whose brilliant work in bacteriology culminated in the discovery of the bacilli of plague and yellow fever and the remedy for beri-beri.

"How have the Japanese Ranked as Statesmen," was discussed by Mrs. H. Wilson and showed the organization of Japan by Iyeyasu, was a masterpiece of political genius. This dynasty known as the Tokugawa, lasted for over two hundred years, (1600 to 1867). With the opening of Japan's ports to the outside world by Commodore Perry in 1854, after the seclusion of 216 years, modern civilization and arts have overwhelmed the Japanese, like a contagion and with the result of "Imitiveness and a passion for education," as taken up by Mrs. F. W. Wieland, has been shown the power of the Japanese in selective discrimination in gathering the best in all realms from other nations during the last fifty years.

With the passion for education, was shown that nearly every Japanese under thirty years of age can read and write and it is a very poor school that is not filled to overflowing, while apprentices and artisans who rise at day-break and work ten or twelve hours are enrolled by the thousands in the evening schools.

Mrs. L. P. Hall spoke upon "The Effect of Artistic Taste and Aesthetic Sensibility on Character," showing the peasants of Japan uncovering in reverent delight before a beautiful landscape or a full-orbed moon. And the color prints now so eagerly sought by connoisseurs the world over, were created by plebeian artisans, who found in such works, an outlet for their pent-up humor and love of beauty.

Mrs. Elder showed how "Loyalty and Filial Piety were a Preparation for Christianity," as in every feudal Japanese order, loyalty was the cardinal virtue, for life depended upon it and in 1868 when the emperor was restored to full power, loyalty to him was fully given. Filial piety toward parents and ancestors still survives in Japan. Here Christianity finds a prepared soil in the worship of the true God.

Mrs. Spencer touched upon "Physical Stamina" by showing the Japanese being rated among the best in the world in its infancy, partly because their stocky, short-legged build makes them splendid marchers.

With the royal line of Japan continuing unbroken for at least 1500 years, the Japanese owe the fact to her "Pivotal location," which is a strong asset. It was further noted that Japan is notably deficient in coal, iron and cotton in her own territory, which will inevitably handicap the Japanese in the industrial race.

To the question, "What have the Native Religions done to help Japanese Women of the Present Day," Mrs. George Whitney replied, "Practically nothing." They are seriously belated in every respect, and for ages the native religions have served to hold women down rather than to elevate them.

Mrs. R. J. Hartley brought a message from the Episcopal missionary field in Japan and showed the work of "The girls friendly society" of St. Agnes, Kyoto, not only effective in bringing together the Christian students but giving others the opportunity to hear of the Christ.

The program, closed with a discussion on the Japanese disaster of earthquakes, fire and water, which probably is the greatest disaster in history. With Tokio, Yokohama and other Japanese cities virtually destroyed, more than a million are homeless, and dead and dying, are reported on every hand. The great immediate need is to get food to the stricken population.

The social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostess. With the number of members present at the meeting were eight visitors, of whom two joined the missionary society.

The Philathea class will meet Friday evening in the basement of the First Methodist church, being entertained by Mrs. A. H. Hilard and Mrs. Mark Cochrane. Each member is requested to bring a friend.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Its Observance Covers Period From October 7 to 13, Oct. 9 Anniversary Chicago Fire

Again Fire Prevention Week approaches and this year its observance will cover the period from October 7 to 13 inclusive. October 9 of this same week will mark the fifty-second anniversary of the great Chicago fire.

To those concerned with the suppression of the Fire Fiend and the great loss of property and life which annually follows in its wake the week is of more than ordinary importance, and extensive plans are in the making for its proper celebration by municipalities and fire prevention officials generally throughout the state.

Through the medium of parades, speeches, lectures, the pulpit, the schools and other forms of education and propaganda the great lesson of Fire Prevention will be carried direct to every home in Minnesota and the individual impressed with the necessity of common sense observance of the same. Observance of the week will be national in its scope.

In Minnesota the setting aside of the period from October 7 to October 13 as Fire Prevention Week will be officially promulgated in a proclamation soon to be issued by Gov. J. A. O. Preus and for the nation by President Coolidge. Plans and a program for the proper observance of the week are now being prepared by Burton L. Kingsley, State Fire Marshal for Minnesota and municipalities and Fire Prevention officials throughout the state will be requested to give all possible aid in the carrying out of the same.

The importance of "Fire Prevention Week" and the lessons its proper observance will convey can be realized when it is known that the fire loss in America last year exceeded $521,000,000 and that fatalities resulting were nearly 15,000 in number. The fire loss was the greatest of any twelve months period in the world's history and was supplemented by fatalities that fairly stagger. As in the case of fires in Minnesota, much of both are due to the great American habit of carelessness and this those in charge of Fire Prevention week hope to minimize.

As State Fire Marshal Kingsley views it fire and the destruction of property which naturally follows can not be entirely eliminated, but the chances of such can be greatly reduced by education, and Fire Prevention Week is the great opportunity to bring it about in Minnesota at least. "Make it a Fireless Week" he says.

In the observance of the week, many things can be done in carrying direct to the community and the individual the value of Fire Prevention and the necessity of constant vigilance in the safeguarding of property and life. In previous years

civic and commercial organizations cooperating with local city, town and village officials have taken charge and by parades participated in by the local fire department and Fire Prevention officials, public addresses by city officials and others, Sunday church talks by clergymen, a program of exercises in the schools and a thorough clean-up of all premises and buildings have materially reduced the fire hazard and awakened the people to the knowledge and value of Prevention.

Similar activities will feature the observance of the week this year and it is planned to supplement them with other ideas and schemes of a prevention character. The week can be made a memorable one and to this end Fire Marshal Kingsley invites every municipality in the state to do its bit. Business men and fire department officials can aid materially by a program of inspection and the removal of all waste and fire hazards where possible. In past years public bonfires of waste and rubbish have been an important feature.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY STUDIES JAPANESE

Interesting Meeting Held by 1st
Congregational Church
Society

AT HOME OF MRS. E. P. SLIPP

Review of the Various Papers Read
by Participating Members

The missionary society of the First Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. E. P. Slipp on Friday afternoon, and the study of "Assets and Liabilities of the Japanese," Chapter 1, "Creative Forces in Japan" was taken up and the following program carried out:

"Map study of Japan," Mrs. Slipp. The qualities the Japanese people most admire and themselves exemplify are shown in "The roll of Japan's heroes." The heroes of any people being, perhaps, the surest index of their character. Of these non-Christian heroes, Miss Robinson told why some were worshipped, viz. benevolence, enlightened statesman, founder of Buddhist sects, inventor of Japanese running script, honesty, saintly teacher, homely wisdom, peasant saint, etc.

Among the several Christians who have won chief place in the roll of Japanese heroes, is Joseph Hardy Neesima, told by Mrs. Losey, and which revealed the rug-away patriot leaving Japan and coming to America in search of the true God, and at a time when to leave Japan was to invite the death penalty.

Today, in the city of Kyoto, on the edge of the imperial park, a traveler would stop to admire the beautiful buildings and grounds of a great university. It is Neesima's work, the Doshisha. Among the many young men and women enrolled as students there are thousands of graduates who have gone forth from its walls to help Japan and to lead her to know the great Master. They owe their chance to Joseph Hardy Neesima, who ran away from home to get an education and who sold his sword for a new testament.

Mrs. H. L. Jones spoke on the "Mental Capacity of the Japanese in Scientific Research," showing that in the field of scientific research, not a few Japanese have attained eminence. The best known instances being Dr. Kitasato and Dr. Noguchi, whose brilliant work in bacteriology culminated in the discovery of the bacilli of plague and yellow fever and the remedy for beri-beri.

"How have the Japanese Ranked as Statesmen," was discussed by Mrs. H. Wilson and showed the organization of Japan by Iyeyasu, was a masterpiece of political genius. This dynasty known as the Tokugawa, lasted for over two hundred years, (1600 to 1867). With the opening of Japan's ports to the outside world by Commodore Perry in 1854, after the seclusion of 216 years, modern civilization and arts have overwhelmed the Japanese, like a contagion and with the result of "Imitiveness and a passion for education," as taken up by Mrs. F. W. Wieland, has been shown the power of the Japanese in selective discrimination in gathering the best in all realms from other nations during the last fifty years.

With the passion for education, was shown that nearly every Japanese under thirty years of age can read and write and it is a very poor school that is not filled to overflowing, while apprentices and artisans who rise at day-break and work ten or twelve hours are enrolled by the thousands in the evening schools.

Mrs. L. P. Hall spoke upon "The Effect of Artistic Taste and Aesthetic Sensibility on Character," showing the peasants of Japan uncovering in reverent delight before a beautiful landscape or a full-orbed moon. And the color prints now so eagerly sought by connoisseurs the world over, were created by plebeian artisans, who found in such work, an outlet for their pent-up humor and love of beauty.

Mrs. Elder showed how "Loyalty and Filial Piety were a Preparation for Christianity," as in every feudal Japanese order, loyalty was the cardinal virtue, for life depended upon it and in 1868 when the emperor was restored to full power, loyalty to him was fully given. Filial piety toward parents and ancestors still survives in Japan. Hero Christianity finds a prepared soil in the worship of the true God.

Mrs. Spencer touched upon "Physical Stamina" by showing the Japanese being rated among the best in the world in its infancy, partly because their stocky, short-legged build makes them splendid marchers.

With the royal line of Japan continuing unbroken for at least 1500 years, the Japanese owe the fact to her "Pivotal location," which is a strong asset. It was further noted that Japan is notably deficient in coal, iron and cotton in her own territory, which will inevitably handicap the Japanese in the industrial race.

To the question, "What have the Native Religions done to help Japanese Women of the Present Day," Mrs. George Whitney replied, "Practically nothing." They are seriously belated in every respect, and for ages the native religions have served to hold women down rather than to elevate them.

Mrs. R. J. Hartley brought a message from the Episcopal missionary field in Japan and showed the work of "The girls friendly society" of St. Agnes, Kyoto, not only effective in bringing together the Christian students but giving others the opportunity to hear of the Christ.

The program closed with a discussion on the Japanese disaster of earthquakes, fire and water, which probably is the greatest disaster in history. With Tokio, Yokohama and other Japanese cities virtually destroyed, more than a million are homeless, and dead and dying, are reported on every hand. The great immediate need is to get food to the stricken population.

The social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostess. With the number of members present at the meeting were eight visitors, of whom two joined the missionary society.

The Philathea class will meet Friday evening in the basement of the First Methodist church, being entertained by Mrs. A. H. Hilard and Mrs. Mark Cochrane. Each member is requested to bring a friend.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Its Observance Covers Period From October 7 to 13, Oct. 9 Anniversary Chicago Fire

Again Fire Prevention Week approaches and this year its observance will cover the period from October 7 to 13 inclusive. October 9 of this same week will mark the fifty-second anniversary of the great Chicago fire.

To those concerned with the suppression of the Fire Fiend and the great loss of property and life which annually follows in its wake the week is of more than ordinary importance, and extensive plans are in the making for its proper celebration by municipalities and fire prevention officials generally throughout the state.

Through the medium of parades, speeches, lectures, the pulpit, the schools and other forms of education and propaganda the great lesson of Fire Prevention will be carried direct to every home in Minnesota and the individual impressed with the necessity of common sense observance of the same. Observance of the week will be national in its scope.

In Minnesota the setting aside of the period from October 7 to October 13 as Fire Prevention Week will be officially promulgated in a proclamation soon to be issued by Gov. J. A. O. Preus and for the nation by President Coolidge. Plans and a program for the proper observance of the week are now being prepared by Burton L. Kingsley, State Fire Marshal for Minnesota and municipalities and Fire Prevention officials throughout the state will be requested to give all possible aid in the carrying out of the same.

The importance of "Fire Prevention Week" and the lessons its proper observance will convey can be realized when it is known that the fire loss in America last year exceeded $521,000,000 and that fatalities resulting were nearly 15,000 in number. The fire loss was the greatest of any twelve months period in the world's history and was supplemented by fatalities that fairly stagger. As in the case of fires in Minnesota, much of both are due to the great American habit of carelessness and this those in charge of Fire Prevention week hope to minimize.

As State Fire Marshal Kingsley views it fire and the destruction of property which naturally follows can not be entirely eliminated, but the chances of such can be greatly reduced by education, and Fire Prevention Week is the great opportunity to bring it about in Minnesota at least. "Make it a Fireless Week" he says.

In the observance of the week, many things can be done in carrying direct to the community and the individual the value of Fire Prevention and the necessity of constant vigilance in the safeguarding of property and life. In previous years

civic and commercial organizations cooperating with local city, town and village officials have taken charge and by parades participated in by the local fire department and Fire Prevention officials, public addresses by city officials and others, Sunday church talks by clergymen, a program of exercises in the schools and a thorough clean-up of all premises and buildings have materially reduced the fire hazard and awakened the people to the knowledge and value of Prevention.

Similar activities will feature the observance of the week this year and it is planned to supplement them with other ideas and schemes of a prevention character. The week can be made a memorable one and to this end Fire Marshal Kingsley invites every municipality in the state to do its bit. Business men and fire department officials can aid materially by a program of inspection and the removal of all waste and fire hazards where possible. In past years public bonfires of waste and rubbish have been an important feature.

S. J. Greer, horseshoer, 822 S. 7th St., says: "When I was young I had an accident that affected my kidneys. When I was working, the constant bending and straining on my back irritated my kidneys. When I got down to put a shoe on a horse it was about all I could do to get up again. I sure was in pain and it became hard for me to do my work properly. My kidneys didn't act right, but when I got to using Doan's Kidney Pills I was fixed up in good shape. I have had little or no kidney trouble since and my health has been fine."

EXTREMES MEET IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA is in the limelight. A battle is being staged there that will have an important bearing upon other states. Two extremes are meeting in a contest of strength and either the visible government or the invisible government must go down to defeat.

That such a condition of things should obtain today in one of the states of the union is a matter for profound regret and is more deplorable still during a week in which American citizens are asked to give their attention to the Bill of Rights which guarantees to the elements in Oklahoma the things for which they struggle. It seems, from accounts of what is happening in that state, that this Bill of Rights is not too seriously considered by either of the extremes.

The Ku Klux Klan has taken the law into its own hands and the governor of Oklahoma has taken the law into his own hands. The law should rightly be administered by the officers of the law but the Klan was not satisfied with the legal administration and the governor is not satisfied with the civil administration. Oklahoma has Klan law and martial law and neither of these is civil law. Of course, the governor may be justified in resisting the inroads of the Klan by the use of the state troops, but unless he is able to win by their use the result will be most unfortunate for his state and for the United States.

It cannot be too often said that the Ku Klux Klan is a menace to the country. Whatever its motives may be it is dangerous. Criminals may hide themselves behind it and it is in itself a form of revolution even though its members claim to be one hundred per cent American. If one faction starts a revolution there is nothing to prevent other factions from doing the same. Unless the Klan is curbed this country will see blood flowing in the streets of our larger cities as a result of the clashing of the Klan and the groups which the Klan would repress. It is a sight to make the angels weep: The champions of Americanism, the opponents of disorder and injustice, the enemies of radicalism and revolution practicing most un-American principles, creating disorder and injustice and countenancing revolution against constituted authorities.

Perhaps it is well that there should be a joining of the issues. Unless there is, America is on the road to invisible government and to revolution. True Americans, wherever they were born and whatever their creed, will hope that the governor of Oklahoma may be able to do what he set out to do, that is, to re-establish the sanctity of constituted government, because, if he fails, after calling in the state troops to control the situation, those who oppose constituted authority will have gained a most unfortunate victory. The Ku Klux Klan is not to be judged by its motives, it must be judged by its fruits, and its fruits are seen in Oklahoma at this time. The fruits are bitter to the taste of those who share in any degree the spirit of Abraham Lincoln.

GIVING GAME A CHANCE

DR. WILLIAM T. HORNADAY, director of the New York Zoological Garden, has called attention to the destruction of game made possible by the use of the automobile. He shows that the automobile, by facilitating the movement of hunters and serving as a platform from which game may be shot, is fast exterminating wild life. He pays his respects to the modern hunter who chases wild animals, with high-powered cars which prohibit the escape of the animals and yield a large bag that is not secured by sportsmanlike methods. He cites the fact that a promoter of hunting expeditions advertises "extra easy hunting by means of his series of 'base camps' and communication between them by automobile."

While the people of Minnesota are not warmly interested in such expeditions they are interested in the hunting of game within the state of Minnesota, and Minnesota is one of the states named by Dr. Hornaday as suffering from the use of the automobile by hunters.

In Minnesota the law prohibits shooting from an automobile, and there are other laws limiting its destructiveness, such as that which prohibits the carrying of a gun, ready for action, in an automobile. Such legislation restricts the hunter to a considerable extent and serves to protect game but the automobile facilitates movement from place to place and this quick movement results in the destruction of game.

To preserve the game Dr. Hornaday recommends a reduction of the bag limits, of the length of the open seasons and of the number of shots of automatic and pump shotguns.

Residents of sections where game is found and which are invaded by hunters from other parts of the country will favor legislation for the protection of game. Unless this is done their hunting trips will be robbed of their pleasure, and the destruction of the game will mean that the revenue that comes from the influx of hunters will be withdrawn, for they will not come where there is nothing to hunt. Brainerd has an association pledged to the protection of the wild life of the state and its membership is alert and will further legislation which may be needed from time to time to prevent the too rapid killing off of the game of the great hunting grounds to which Brainerd is a gateway.

ONCE more the clouds have lifted and the war scare doesn't frighten Europe. There's something in Europe big enough to cause these alarms. Because we don't have this something is a ground for satisfaction and should lead to sympathy for those who do it. They don't want war but they don't know how to do without it.

GOVERNOR WALTON of Oklahoma is out to govern. Newspapers, groups, and even legislators, who refuse to support him in his stand are advised that he will stand without them and if necessary suppress them or imprison them. In a time when officers compromise it is good to see one stand fast.

LUIS FIRPO had the kick but he lacked the control. There's a lot in kicking at the right time. Luis got in a big kick but couldn't deliver the little one needed to win the fight.

KNIGHTS PYTHIAS AUTUMN SEASON

Ushered in Tonight With a Special Program at Castle Hall

MANY VISITORS EXPECTED

Brainerd Lodge to Inaugurate Plan of Visiting Neighboring Lodges

Tonight will usher in the autumn season for White Cross lodge No. 30, Knights of Pythias.

A special program has been arranged and visitors from Aitkin, Staples and the Range are expected to be present. Plans will be made for the fall and winter season, which promises to be a very busy one for the local lodge.

It is hoped to arrange for a series of visits back and forth between the Brainerd lodge and others in this vicinity, so that a stronger brotherhood may be had and the interest of Pythianism advanced.

At the grand lodge of the state, recently held in Duluth, it was decided that the four principal grand lodge officers should each head one of the four districts into which Minnesota is divided, the better to care for the needs of the subordinate lodges in these districts.

Rev. Hans Wolner, a former resident of Brainerd, and still a member of White Cross lodge, will head the district of which this city is a part. Rev. Wolner was honored at the grand lodge by being elected grand prelate without any opposition, which is taken as quite an honor, both for Rev. Wolner and for the local lodge. It is his plan to visit here in the near future, and assist in every way possible the furthering of Pythianism in Brainerd.

GRAND SWEEPSTAKES

Three Prize Winners in Fiddlers Contest to Compete at Lyceum on Wednesday

On Wednesday evening the grand sweepstakes event in the old fiddlers contest will be held at the Lyceum theatre.

This promises to be very interesting. Three contests have already been held, and the winners in each will be pitted against each other on Wednesday evening for the grand sweepstakes prize.

To be exact, the previous contests were in the nature of preliminaries, now comes the main bout. Those participating will be Al Newman, Pat Casey and Elmer Clark, each a winner in one of the past contests. One of these gentlemen will be acclaimed the winner by popular vote of the sweepstakes.

This will not be the last contest, says Manager W. R. Hiller of the Lyceum. It is his intention to continue this popular entertainment as before, staging three preliminary contests and then a sweepstakes so long as talent can be procured.

It is gratifying to note the response from the public in the contests. On each occasion the Lyceum has been packed with those who appreciate the music of a passing generation. Anyone who believes that the present day jazz is the only variety in demand, will do well to notice the crowds who turn out to hear the old fiddlers play the music popular in their childhood. Young people seem to be enjoying this innovation as much as their elders, and are entering into the spirit of the contests with as much enthusiasm.

Manager Hiller asks that all old fiddlers who wish to enter the coming contests, register at the Lyceum theatre in the near future, and be fore the night of the contest.

Troop No. 1 held its regular meeting on Monday night with an attendance of eighteen scouts. The meeting was in charge of the Troop Committee, G. E. Lowe as acting Scoutmaster. Registration of the troop for the coming year was the first line of business, and 15 scouts re-registered with a number to come in at the next meeting.

One new application was received and there will be two additional scouts coming in by transfer from other towns. The troop committee for the next year will be George E. Lowe, Chairman, Edw. Anderson and Henry Hoffman. Franklin G. Gorrie of the high school faculty, has been secured as Scoutmaster, and Henry Cunningham will again serve as assistant scoutmaster. With this list of officials in charge of the troop program we can look for a fine program of scouting.

The NEW-PEP and WE'LL SHOW 'EM season is here, opportunity and challenge is unlimited, every real scout will want to hit "the old scout trail" as never before, and every scout can get his own pace with full assurance that he will have full cooperation of a live bunch of senior officers. LET'S GO.

Scout Executive Stimble spent Tuesday at Ironton and Crosby on extension work in the east end of the county and reports a healthy interest in Scouting among both boys and men. He will attend a "round-up" meeting of boys of scout age, called by Supt. Perkins of the consolidated Ironton-Crosby schools, on Thursday at 3:30 P. M., at which time the preliminary organization of troops in Crosby and Ironton will be made.

The Range wants Scouting, the men are pledging their moral and financial support to the work, and troops in the west end of Crow Wing will have to look to their laurels—or lose them—when the range scouts get started.

Friday evening at 7 o'clock, an organization of a new troop in the Zion Evangelical church, 4th Ave., N. E. and Forsyth, will be completed, and a new troop will be started in the Mill Mission community, under the leadership of Charles Swindell, during the month. Two other troops are in prospect for Brainerd for the month of October, and by the close of the year we will have six, and possibly more, troops in Brainerd, and eight or ten in the county district.

Eleven children were born to this union, four of whom died in infancy. Only three of this number are now living, one daughter and two sons, being Mrs. Schellhorn and George Funk of Brainerd, and Alex who lives in Germany.

Funeral arrangements have not been definitely decided, but it is expected that the services will be held on Friday morning, from St. Francis Catholic church, of which she was a member. Interment will be made in Evergreen cemetery.

SPORTS

BLAME U. S. FOR BRITISH BOXING DECLINE

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor.

New York, Sept. 19.—British sport writers are blaming American promoters and fighters for the rather low estate into which English and European boxing has descended.

It is frankly admitted on the other side that England has very little to boast of since the demise of Jimmy Wilde as the world's flyweight champion. Comment printed in London on the outcome of the Dundee-Criqui featherweight championship fight was rather surprising to fight fans on this side.

Inasmuch as Criqui was virtually black-jacked into the Dundee match before he had been able to make any capital out of his victory over Johnny Kilbane and before he had an opportunity to show France what the first world's champion looked like, it was thought that some objection would be voiced.

The result of the fight, however, was accepted with complacency.

"Dundee's victory over Criqui," Sporting Life (London) said, "merely emphasizes the poor quality of our own featherweights. True, Joe Fox, the British champion, was far superior in the science of boxing than the Frenchman when they met fourteen months ago, but the fact remains that he fell a victim to Criqui's deadly right and was beaten in the twelfth round. There is no one here to beat Criqui and yet Dundee was able to dispose of the Frenchman in the same manner that our champion would out-class a second-rater."

Tex Rickard is held responsible for the decline in British boxing, in the opinion of several writers. They point out that in offering such huge purses he increased the avarice of European boxers as well as American fighters and he brought about conditions whereby all the European boxers refuse to work for nominal purses on the other side, and dash to America for big money.

It is news to America to learn from these same writers that Rickard has ruined boxing also in the United States. The London papers told their readers that American fight fans had rebelled against Rickard and the other big promoters and were refusing to pay big prices for tickets.

Rickard will thrive on all the rebellion that has been raised against him. The fans on the other side would have a different idea of the rebellion if they could see the list of receipts of the big fights staged here this summer.

Some precedent may have been established by legal action taken recently in London by an owner against a jockey for damages resulting from a fall in which the horse was killed.

Charging the negligent riding of Michael Beary caused the death of a racing mare, Ironore, at the Kempton race meeting in May, H. J. Boam, the owner, brought suit for damages and he was given a judgment of 315 pounds.

HIGH JUMP AND POLE VAULT STAR

Minneapolis, Sept. 19.—Tommy Rugg, former star athlete of Minneapolis West high school, who came into nationwide prominence because of his brilliant showing in the national interscholastic track meet in Chicago in 1922, enrolled as a student in the University of Minnesota.

Rugg, in his high school days, made a brilliant name for himself both in track and football, taking a place along with Harley Carrier of North and Earl Martineau of West high school, now captain of the Minnesota football team, as one of the greatest all-around athletes produced in a Minneapolis high school.

At the conclusion of his high school career, Rugg was doing better than six feet in the high jump and pole vaulting over the 12 foot mark, besides performing creditably in a number of other track events. He was graduated from high school in 1922 and since that time has been employed in Minneapolis. A number of eastern schools, it was reported, were attempting to induce Rugg to enroll, but the brilliant athlete decided to come to Minnesota.

Rugg is expected to be a candidate for the freshman football team.

BEST MAN WON—WALTER HOOVER

Duluth, Sept. 19.—Handing Walter Hoover the worst defeat he has ever suffered, W. E. Garrett Gilmore of Philadelphia won the Philadelphia Gold Challenge cup, which carried with it the world's single sculling championship. The race, postponed from Saturday, was rowed on the St. Louis Bay mile and a quarter course. The time was 8:39. Gilmore won by four lengths, 10 seconds ahead of the former champion.

"Hoover is a good sport," Gilmore said after the race, "and I'll give him a return race probably next summer at the Olympic trials."

"The best man won," declared Hoover. The dethroned champion admitted he was upwards of 20 pounds overweight. Asked if he had anything to say about the report that friction between himself and the Duluth Boat club officials interfered with his training, Hoover said:

"Well, if I should say anything now, you might think it an alibi. I want Gilmore to have full credit for winning this race."

Creditors Questioned

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 19.—Creditors are expected to question the president and the board of directors of the Equity Co-operative Packing company as to their administration at a creditors' meeting here tomorrow.

Emerson H. Smith, referee in bankruptcy called the meeting, one purpose of which is to name a trustee to take charge of the property. The million dollar plant at West Fargo has been idle since early in 1921. Since then the company has been the target of constant legal fire. Three attempts were made to appoint a receiver and the directors filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition while the third effort to have a receiver appointed was in litigation.

The petition is understood, was filed to prevent the larger creditors making levies against the property. In the petition, the directors valued real estate at $100,000 and $600,000 face value in promissory notes at $10,000. Directors recently stated that collections on the notes were encouraging and they hoped to satisfy creditors and dissolve bankruptcy proceedings.

Thought for the Day.

Some of the hardest knocks we get are delivered by our supposed friends.

The Best None Too Good

AMUSEMENTS

Girls, Girls and More Girls Seen in Compson Film

Tall girls and short girls; slim girls and plump girls; pretty girls and—well, girls not quite so pretty, but girls, girls, girls, scores of them, all dressed up in their nicest frocks, stormed the office of the Doyle Touring Service in Honolulu to apply for jobs as minor actresses in Betty Compson's new Paramount picture, "The White Flower," which was produced in the Hawaiian Islands, and which will be an unusual feature at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Thursday.

A general invitation had been issued to Honolulu girls by Manager Griffith of the Compson company to apply for places in the scenes requiring many people. And how the Honolulu girls hoped to it! Unfortunately, however, several attractive misses loitered about the nearby street corners, apparently appalled by the moblike proportions of the crowd around Doyle's office and failed to muster sufficient courage to run the gauntlet of the crowd which gathered to watch this novel event.

"Old Fiddlers' Night at Lyceum Tonight

What promises to be the hottest contest held in Brainerd for some time, will be the "Old Fiddlers' Contest" which is being held at the Lyceum tonight only, at the end of the first show.

The players in tonight's contest are the first prize winners of the previous three contests, namely: Mr. Al Newman, Mr. Elmer Clark, and Mr. Pat Casey, so naturally there is going to be some fine playing on this week's bill.

SPORTS

BLAME U. S. FOR BRITISH BOXING DECLINE

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor.

New York, Sept. 19.—British sport writers are blaming American promoters and fighters for the rather low estate into which English and European boxing has descended.

It is frankly admitted on the other side that England has very little to boast of since the demise of Jimmy Wilde as the world's flyweight champion. Comment printed in London on the outcome of the Dundee-Criqui featherweight championship fight was rather surprising to fight fans on this side.

Inasmuch as Criqui was virtually black-jacked into the Dundee match before he had been able to make any capital out of his victory over Johnny Kilbane and before he had an opportunity to show France what the first world's champion looked like, it was thought that some objection would be voiced.

The result of the fight, however, was accepted with complacency. "Dundee's victory over Criqui," Sporting Life (London) said, "merely emphasizes the poor quality of our own featherweights. True, Joe Fox, the British champion, was far superior in the science of boxing than the Frenchman when they met fourteen months ago, but the fact remains that he fell a victim to Criqui's deadly right and was beaten in the twelfth round. There is no one here to beat Criqui and yet Dundee was able to dispose of the Frenchman in the same manner that our champion would out-class a second-rater."

Tex Rickard is held responsible for the decline in British boxing, in the opinion of several writers. They point out that in offering such huge purses he increased the avarice of European boxers as well as American fighters and he brought about conditions whereby all the European boxers refuse to work for nominal purses on the other side, and dash to America for big money.

It is news to America to learn from these same writers that Rickard has ruined boxing also in the United States. The London papers told their readers that American fight fans had rebelled against Rickard and the other big promoters and were refusing to pay big prices for tickets.

Rickard will thrive on all the rebellion that has been raised against him. The fans on the other side would have a different idea of the rebellion if they could see the list of receipts of the big fights staged here this summer.

Some precedent may have been established by legal action taken recently in London by an owner against a jockey for damages resulting from a fall in which the horse was killed.

Charging the negligent riding of Michael Beary caused the death of a racing mare, Ironore, at the Kempton race meeting in May, H. J. Boam, the owner, brought suit for damages and he was given a judgment of 315 pounds.

HIGH JUMP AND POLE VAULT STAR

Minneapolis, Sept. 19.—Tommy Rugg, former star athlete of Minneapolis West high school, who came into nationwide prominence because of his brilliant showing in the national interscholastic track meet in Chicago in 1922, enrolled as a student in the University of Minnesota.

Rugg, in his high school days, made a brilliant name for himself both in track and football, taking a place along with Harley Carrier of North and Earl Martineau of West high school, now captain of the Minnesota football team, as one of the greatest all-around athletes produced in a Minneapolis high school.

At the conclusion of his high school career, Rugg was doing better than six feet in the high jump and pole vaulting over the 12 foot mark, besides performing creditably in a number of other track events. He was graduated from high school in 1922 and since that time has been employed in Minneapolis. A number of eastern schools, it was reported, were attempting to induce Rugg to enroll, but the brilliant athlete decided to come to Minnesota.

Rugg is expected to be a candidate for the freshman football team.

BEST MAN WON—WALTER HOOVER

Duluth, Sept. 19.—Handing Walter Hoover the worst defeat he has ever suffered, W. E. Garrett Gilmore of Philadelphia won the Philadelphia Gold Challenge cup, which carried with it the world's single sculling championship. The race, postponed from Saturday, was rowed on the St. Louis Bay mile and a quarter course. The time was 8:39. Gilmore won by four lengths, 10 seconds ahead of the former champion.

"Hoover is a good sport," Gilmore said after the race, "and I'll give him a return race probably next summer at the Olympic trials."

"The best man won," declared Hoover. The dethroned champion admitted he was upwards of 20 pounds overweight. Asked if he had anything to say about the report that friction between himself and the Duluth Boat club officials interfered with his training, Hoover said:

"Well, if I should say anything now, you might think it an alibi. I want Gilmore to have full credit for winning this race."

Creditors Questioned
Fargo, N. D., Sept. 19.—Creditors are expected to question the president and the board of directors of the Equity Co-operative Packing company as to their administration at a creditors' meeting here tomorrow.

Emerson H. Smith, referee in bankruptcy called the meeting, one purpose of which is to name a trustee to take charge of the property.

The million dollar plant at West Fargo has been idle since early in 1921. Since then the company has been the target of constant legal fire. Three attempts were made to appoint a receiver and the directors filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition while the third effort to have a receiver appointed was in litigation.

The petition, it is understood, was filed to prevent the larger creditors making levies against the property.

In the petition, the directors valued real estate at $100,000 and $600,000 face value in promissory notes at $10,000. Directors recently stated that collections on the notes were encouraging and they hoped to satisfy creditors and dissolve bankruptcy proceedings.

Thought for the Day.

TOM GIBBONS WILLING TO FIGHT CARPENTIER

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 19.—Tommy Gibbons, heavyweight boxer, playing a theatrical engagement here, said last night he had received no message from New York concerning the cable request of Georges Carpentier, French boxer, to meet him, but that his manager, Eddie Kaue, had instructions to get him a match with the Frenchman "any time and anywhere."

"I'll gladly grasp the opportunity to meet Carpentier," said Gibbons. He said he had received a message yesterday from Kane, stating he was in New York conferring with Tex Rickard, promoter, for a return engagement with Champion Jack Dempsey, who defeated him at Shelby, Mont., July 4.

AMUSEMENTS

Girls, Girls and More Girls Seen in Compson Film

Tall girls and short girls; slim girls and plump girls; pretty girls and—well, girls not quite so pretty, but girls, girls, girls, scores of them, all dressed up in their nicest frocks, stormed the office of the Doyle Touring Service in Honolulu to apply for jobs as minor actresses in Betty Compson's new Paramount picture, "The White Flower," which was produced in the Hawaiian Islands, and which will be an unusual feature at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Thursday.

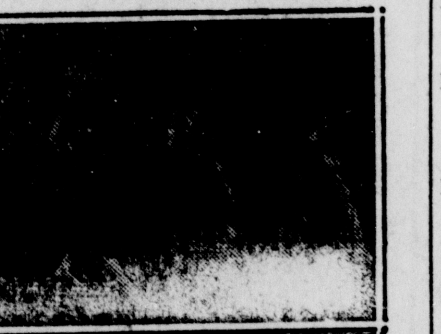

A general invitation had been issued to Honolulu girls by Manager Griffith of the Compson company to apply for places in the scenes requiring many people. And how the Honolulu girls hopped to it! Unfortunately, however, several attractive misses loitered about the nearby street corners, apparently appalled by the moblike proportions of the crowd around Doyle's office and failed to muster sufficient courage to run the gauntlet of the crowd which gathered to watch this novel event.

"Old Fiddlers" Night at Lyceum Tonight

What promises to be the hottest contest held in Braiherd for some time, will be the "Old Fiddlers' Contest" which is being held at the Lyceum tonight only, at the end of the first show.

The players in tonight's contest are the first prize winners of the previous three contests, namely: Mr. Al Newman, Mr. Elmer Clark, and Mr. Pat Casey, so naturally there is going to be some fine playing on this week's bill.
